HERE'S TILLMAN AGAIN

"MY MAIL IS BEING HELD UP,"
THE SOUTH CAROLINA
SENATOR ASSERTS.

ANOTHER SPEECH THURSDAY AFTERNOON

"I Am Prepared for Anything, Even Assassin's Knife," He Told Colleagues in Discussing the Roosevelt Charges.

Washington, Jan. 15.—"I am prepared for anything, even the assassin's knife," shouted Senator Tillman in addressing the senate yesterday regarding his controversy with President Roosevelt and Mr. Bonaparte. Mr. Tillman said that he was not only dealing with the president,
"but with all the cabinet officers who are in league, because, according to the newspapers, they are discussing me at cabinet meetings and are determined to accomplish my ruin if possible."

"I was prepared to have the attorney general deny that I told him anything about the Oregon land case," continued Mr. Tillman. "I was prepared to have the officers sent to me from the post office department, to whom I explained my reasons for asking a fraud order against Dorr, deny my statement."

"While I deal with as unscrupulous men as I do now, I am prepared for anything, even the assassin's knife.
My mail is being held up. I am satisfied of that. I will not say my room has been broken into, because there are keys that will open anything in this capital. They may not have stolen my papers, but they are gone."

The fact is that the attorney general has gone into print to bolster up the president, and charge me with not having talked to him about this matter. I do not like to use the word called for in this case, but will let my hearers fill it in for themselves. I have been frank in talking about the Oregon case to the attorney general, and have made a full explanation to him."

Mr. Tillman announced that he had received another circular sent out by Dorr, one of the men promoting the Oregon land deal, in which the following statement was made:

"Some day I shall have justice and reparation, and when that day comes, now not far distant, there will be a noise that will be heard around the world."

That statement by Mr. Dorr, Mr.
Tillman insisted, was conclusive proof that Dorr had received assurance from the president that he would "drag Tillman down as a liar and scoundrel."

"They exploded their bomb here last Friday," he said, "and now two members of the cabinet are endeavoring to make the country believe that Mr. Roosevelt is the most honest, noble, disinterested prosecutor of great malefactors that ever existed.
Dorr says he is going to get revenge.
He could promise that to him a month or six weeks before the explosion of the bomb."

Mr. Tillman wanted to know what degree of falsehood was to be charged to the two cabinet officers, "or head clerks or bootlicks, and whatever the president has around him."

HAD TO CALL THE POLICE

Snowball Battle at Noon Today Between Students.

A battle royal with snowballs was waged this noon between students of Central Business college and a squad of high school boys, and for a time the youngsters mixed things pretty lively.

Fast and furious the snowballs were thrown from one squad into the other, and it appeared that serious trouble might result unless the fun was stopped.

A police call was turned in, to which Officers Baley and Wood responded, and even after their arrival it required considerable persuasion, coupled with an invitation to the city jail to those who refused to desist.

ier of the Farmers' and Drovers' National bank of Waynesburg, Pa.,

tenced to fifteen years in the penitentiary by United States Judge James

States Senator at That Time.

mocratic members of the Missouri legislature, in caucus today, agreed unanimously that balloting for United States house at Harrisonville.

KERN IS VERY, VERY SORE

LEGISLATORS OF INDIANA BE-TRAYED THEIR CONSTITU-ENTS, HE ASSERTS.

ALL SORTS OF TREACHERY RESORTED TO

Later Defeated Candidate Will Tell of Interests Which Beat Him and of "Treachery and Double Dealing."

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 15.—The choosing of B. F. Shively as nominee for United States senator by democratic members of the state legislature was followed last afternoon by a statement from John W. Kern, Shive-ly's strongest opponent.

Concerning the secret ballot, Mr.
Kern says it made possible not only the betrayal of constituents by their representatives, but "all sorts of treachery, double dealing and corrupt practices." Shively was elected on the twentieth ballot, after the caucus had balloted five hours. Mr.
Kern's statement follows in part:

"It is a matter of great regret that under the cloak of the secret ballot so many representatives were able to defy the will of their constituents. I have in mind several counties where the sentiment for my nomination was practically unanimous and that sentiment was known to their representatives and yet those representatives deliberately betrayed their people and voted for men who, in a primary, would not have received a handful of votes in those counties."

"I believe that thoughtful people will find in the scenes of the last two days additional strong argument in favor of the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people. I do not care at this time to discuss in detail the causes which contributed to the result."

"I shall have something to say as to the interests back of the opposition to me and as to the stories of double dealing and double crossing which are afloat. I have not been deceived as to the attitude of those interests and men. Their efforts to deceive me throughout the canvass were more amusing to me than otherwise. In due time the public shall know the whole story and my only purpose in making these things public will be to show these interests and these gentlemen that I was deceived at no stage of the game by any of them."

Thomas Faggart, who supported Kern for the vice presidential nomination, said he took absolutely no part in the senatorial contest.

Good With Another House.

several years has worked nearby cities for the John L. Guerrant Grocery company, has tendered his resignation, effective February 1. Mr. Mc-Mullen is a very popular salesman, and he has numerous friends in all towns he visits. He will continue his work as traveling salesman, but goes to the Reiler Grocery company at an increased salary, and will work neighboring towns north and south on the M. & T.

OIL COMPANY GETS STAY

WATERS-PIERCE MUST SHOW IT IS INDEPENDENT BY FEBRUARY 15.

THE FINE OF $50,000 DUE ON MARCH 1

State Supreme Court Grants Judge
Priest's Request, Expecting Compliance With the Tri-bunal's Order.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 15.—The time granted to the Waters-Pierce Oil company, in which to file in the Missouri state supreme court evidence satisfactory to the court that it had severed its connection with the Standard Oil company, or have enforced against it the court's order of ouster from the state, would have expired today, but thirty days' extension of time was yesterday granted by the court.

This additional time was given in compliance with a formal motion, sent by telegraph by Judge Sam Priest, who represents the company, under the impression by the court it is believed, that its orders will be fully complied with.

In addition to giving satisfactory evidence of having wholly dissolved itself from any connection with the Standard company, it must pay a fine of $50,000. The payment of this fine is fixed in the original opinion of the court for March 1.

The extension of time granted yesterday has no bearing whatever upon the fine, which must be paid on the date specified, unless some other action is taken later by the court in regard to that feature of the matter.

KILLED MAN AND WOMAN

AFTER THE DOUBLE MURDER A MISSOURIAN COMMIT-TED SUICIDE.

TRAGEDY OCCURRED NEAR MODENA, MO

Wife of John Thompson Slain in Bed
Murderer's Body There—A Babe
Was Saved From Death
By Young Girl.

Princeton, Mo., Jan. 15.—After killing Butler Thompson in the middle of the road, John Brooks barricaded himself in the home of John Thompson, a brother of Butler, where Mrs.
John Thompson lay ill in bed, yesterday, and when surrounded by a posse, killed the woman and himself.

The tragedy occurred near Modena, eight miles southwest of Princeton, near the Grundy county line. The Thompsons are nephews of James Thompson, a prominent politician of Princeton, and are well known throughout Mercer and adjoining counties. Brooks had been in the employment of John Thompson, and had been discharged.

According to information received here, Brooks and Butler Thompson quarreled at Mount Moriah a few days ago. Brooks later called at the Thompson home and was ordered to leave, when he threatened to kill all the Thompsons.

Yesterday forenoon Brooks met the two Thompsons in the road and renewed the quarrel. Butler Thompson was shot dead in the road. The other brother fled to his own home, but Brooks followed and drove him from the premises.

Entering the house, Brooks barricaded the door. Mrs. Thompson was in bed with her eight-weeks-old child.
With her was a young woman who had been staying at the house. Brooks threatened to kill all three of them. The young woman caught up the child and ran from the place.
She told Thompson that Brooks had barricaded the house. The woman's husband hastily called a posse of neighbors and surrounded the house.
Suddenly two shots rang out. The posse broke in the doors. Mrs. Thompson was dead in bed, with an ugly wound in her head, and across the body lay Brooks, breathing his last.
The coroner at Princeton was notified and went to the scene of the tragedy.

Little is known as to the immediate cause of the tragedy. Brooks had been drinking when he met the Thompsons in the road. The Thompsons were about 30 years of age, and Butler Thompson, aged 25 and single, lived with them.

Brooks had been in the employ of
J. T. Thompson for several years.
He was a rough character and had figured in quarrels of a serious nature before. A few months ago he was concerned in a cutting scrape at Brinceton. He was a man of about 40 years of age. The Thompson boys were nephews of the present sheriff of Mercer county. Another uncle, Dr. J. T. Thompson, is hospital surgeon at St. Joseph.

Trial Before a Jury.

Mrs. Emma Johnson, charged with disturbing the peace in Flat Creek township some time since, is being tried before a jury in the court of Justice Leaming this afternoon.

MR. TAFT VISITS ATLANTA

HE IS BOOKED FOR A STAY OF 26
DAYS IN THE GEORGIA METROPOLIS.

NOTABLE RECEPTION WAS TENDERED HIM

Tonight There Will Be a Banquet and
It Is Almost Unnecessary to Say There'll Be 'Possum and Sweet "Taters."

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 15.—Men of distinguished attainments from all over the south joined today in greeting William Howard Taft upon his arrival in this city for a stay of twenty-six hours.

It was the most enthusiastic reception tendered to any Atlanta visitor in recent years, and men of all political faiths participated in the exhibition of true southern hospitality, which will have its joyous culmination tonight at a banquet under the auspices of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce.

Opossum, sweet potatoes and persimmon beer are the principal items on the bill of fare for tonight's feast, and some of the best chefs in the south are today engaged in preparing those delicacies in the true Georgia style. The future president of the United States has reluctantly admitted that he has never known the gastronomy delight supplied by 'possum, yams and 'simmon beer, to which all Georgians are traditionally partial.

GENTLEMEN'S DRIVING CLUB

Will Hold Meeting at John T. Stin-son's Office Tonight.

Tonight a meeting will be held at the offices of the Missouri state fair for the purpose of perfecting a permanent organization to be known as the Gentlemen's Driving club of Sedalia.

A large number of local reinsmen, who have fast steppers, and classy driving horses, are very enthusiastic over the prospects for a club to give matinee races during the coming summer, and they anticipate challenging other clubs for matinee events.

Officers will be elected, and it is the intention to start the organization anew, under the most favorable circumstances.

HAINS IS NOT GUILTY

Jury in Famous Murder Case Acquitted Defendant This Afternoon.

Flushing, N. Y., Jan. 15.—Thornton Jenkins Hains, charged with being a principal in the murder of William E. Annis, who was shot and killed by Capt. Peter C. Hains, jr., at Bay Side
Yacht club last summer, was acquitted by the jury this afternoon.

The jury was out all night and arrived at its decision after many hours of deliberation, during most of which time it stood 10 to 2 for acquittal.
The verdict was reached only after it had returned to the court room for additional instructions.

First Boy; Parents Happy.

W. E. Hurlbut, president and manager of the Sedalia Printing Co., and his good wife, living at 917 South Grand avenue, have a fine baby boy at their home, born at 2 o'clock this morning, and who tipped the scales at nine pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbut had previously been blessed with three daughters, and the arrival of a son this morning was a source of supreme gratification to father, mother and sisters.

GOING AROUND WORLD

JOHN L. SULLIVAN, IDOL OF THE PRIZE RING NUMBER OF YEARS AGO.

HE WILL GIVE A SERIES OF EXHIBITIONS

Leaves Boston Sunday Night and Will Go Direct to Seattle—Later Will Take His Departure for Australia.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 15.—John L.
Sullivan leaves Sunday night for a world tour that will include all the English-speaking countries, as well as many continental places, where the fame of the one-time champion is almost as well known as at home.

Plans for the trip, which have been under way for some time, were completed yesterday. This means that when Sullivan completes his engagement at the Howard Saturday night it will be his last public appearance in Boston for many years, and possibly the last time he will ever be seen in his home town with the gloves on.

Sullivan, it is well known to his friends, has had for some time past a longing to let up on the strenuous work incident to his theatrical engagements and to settle down on a small farm and enjoy the rest of his days on the money he has saved during the five years since he took his firm clinch on the front seat of the water wagon.

Leaving Boston Sunday night Sullivan will go direct to Seattle, and will tour the coast cities. Later he will leave for Australia, stopping at Honolulu. After visiting the principal cities of the anti-podean continent, he will work his way back to Western Europe by easy stages and will close the long trip with a series of exhibitions throughout England and Ireland.

There is a possibility that Sullivan may pick up Herbert Slade, one of his former antagonists, and take him to Australia as a sparring partner.
Slade is at present a policeman in Salt Lake, through which city Sullivan will pass on his way to the coast.

THE CRIME OF A MANIAC

There probably always will be difference of opinion as to the psychological causes that entered into the recent most remarkable crime in Michigan, in which a "short-minded" carpenter met a horrible fate at the hands of a crazed minister of the Gospel, in the house of God.

Motive is the missing link in the solving chain that blocks, and blocks possibly for all time, a satisfactory solution of this astounding tragedy. In the absence of information on this point, all explanations of the demonic crime are futile and amount to nothing more than speculation.

In the absence of an established motive, however, there is but one conclusion—the minister and murderer was laboring under a terrific mental strain which must be regarded as easily within the zone of insanity.

If Carmichael was in his right mind when he slew Browning he must have had a motive for his act. He must have planned it and must have gone to the little village church on the fatal night with murder in his heart. The crime was not the result of an accidental quarrel. The terrible weapons employed are not the usual pocket trinkets of a clergyman or of an inoffensive villager. The big knives to which reference was made were in the church for the bloody purpose to which they were put, or at least the killing. It takes a powerful motive to impel a man to the butchery that took place at the Rattle Run edifice, and because there is not the faintest clue suggesting the motive it is impossible to conceive any that might originate out of the relations of a man in the station and environment of Rev. Carmichael and a man of Gideon Browning's type.

While the summit of the one does not rise exceptionally high, nor the deficiencies of the other sink strikingly low, there nevertheless was an intellectual and social gulf that bars the supposition of murderous hatred on the part of the slayer.

If there were property to gain, a scandal or crime to hide, or a woman's charms in the balance, murder might be done, but even here the mind shrinks from contemplation of a sanguinary orgie like that in the lonely country church for reward so paltry.

In vain do we search for a motive for this particular crime, or for any similar saturnalia on the premise that the perpetrator is sane.

The conviction forces itself that Rev. Carmichael was a maniac. Whether the violent mental lesion was superinduced by pathological causes, as the ear swelling suggests, whether it was the furious outburst of morbid brooding, or whether mysterious and impenetrable psychic causes, such as are revealed by the minister's confession, brought it about, are questions we seek in vain to answer.

Even though inconsistent with known facts, the murderer's explanation is possible, even plausible, and if accepted raises the crime to the plane of one of the most extraordinary in history. But whatever the facts, the only satisfactory theory left for serious consideration is that Rev. Carmichael was tortured by a ravaging termined to accomplish my rin if pos

MINISTERS ARE HUMAN.

The Rev. Dr. George R. Van de Water, of St. Andrew's Episcopal church in New York, in a sermon to eight candidates for ordination the other day deplored that ministers no longer maintained their exceptional position and dignity, but lowered themselves by acting just like the common herd.

"A minister," he said, "ought to be different from others, eat differently, drink differently, talk and act differently. The world needs more ministers of whom it can be said that they do not do things as others do them."

Dr. Van de Water is right. There was a time when a minister of the Gospel was considered only a small step below the angels or the saints. But not so now. It is rather difficult for the common people to maintain their veneration for the ministry if so many of its members act not only just like the common herd does, but even worse than the average common individual. There have been quite a number of ministers lately who did the most outrageous things. Some identified themselves with the most corrupt political intrigues; others embezzled funds of the church or belonging to members of their congregations; still others disgraced themselves by appearing in public in a state of beastly intoxication or by running away with other men's wives. Such actions, surely, are not calculated to increase the respect of the common herd for the exalted state of the ministerial profession.

Was Operated Upon Today.

Mrs. Louella Mitchell, wife of Conductor Mitchell, of the Missouri Pacific at Jefferson City, and who was formerly Miss Clifton, a Sedalia music teacher, was operated upon at a hospital at Jefferson City at 1 o'clock this morning for appendicitis and peritonitis.

Two specialists from St. Louis performed the operation, and a telephone message from Jefferson City today says the patient is resting comfortably.

Don't fail to attend the dance given by Stover-Fields at Sedalia hall Saturday night.

Was No Police Court Today.

During the past few days there has been but little activity in police circles, and about all the bluecoats have found to keep them busy is to patrol their beats, and occasionally visit the city bastille to permit some poor unfortunate and homeless creature to secure a night's lodging.

Several of this class were given shelter last night and were released this morning. No session of the police court was held.

There is no flour just as good as Big "S." Insist on the "S."

Dr. Martin's Revival Meetings.

The revival at the First M. E. church is increasing in interest and attendance at each service. Rev. W. G. Jones preached a splendid sermon on "The Value of the Soul" last night. The duet by Mr. Montgomery and wife was fine. Tonight, by special request, they will sing, "Grace Enough for Me." All made welcome.

Vegetable Stones.

"These are vegetable stones," said a geologist. "Stones, that is, that grow in vegetables."

"Here is a tabasheer. It is found in the joints of certain kinds of bamboo. It is always round and brown, like this. Here is the cocoanut stone. You find it in the endosperm of the Javanese cocoanut. Round or pear-shaped, it has always this milk-white luster, like a pearl. The smaller stone, with its pearly luster a little tarnished, is found in the pomegranate. It is pure carbonate of lime. These stones are formed from silicious and calcareous juices circulating in the plant organism. They are the result of a diseased condition. Man himself, you know, occasionally puts forth stony growths; and they must be removed, or the human stone-grower dies in excruciating pain."

Demands Come High.

A young man in a responsible post in a New York broker's office asked his employer for an increase in salary the other day.

"Why do you want more than you've been getting?" queried the boss.

"Well, I'm doing two men's work now. Then, too, it's pretty hard sledding to make both ends meet each month. I've got a good many demands on me that you don't know anything about."

"I know one of them, anyway," retorted the boss, with a smile. "I saw you eating with her at the Waldorf last night after the show. If the other 'demands I don't know anything about' are as pretty as she is, I don't blame you. But if I raise your salary $15 a week I would advise you, as a financier, not to increase your demands."

Queer Languages.

Among the queerest languages used by human beings are those of Gomer, in the Canary Islands, and the Cameroons of West Africa. The Gomer converses with people a mile or so distant by whistling, using both fingers and lips so expertly as to express all the signals required to make the conversation intelligible. A Cameroonian man uses a drum for the same purpose. The instrument is rather peculiar, its surface being divided into two unequal portions, so that when it is struck it yields two different notes. With a code not unlike the taps of the telegraph system, the natives make this drum express any syllable of their language.

The forty merchants now handling "Washclean" in Sedalia are giving us the most favorable reports. We are going to demonstrate the merits of "Washclean" to every woman in Sedalia, and we know you are sure to appreciate its virtue as thousands of women do, who are now using it.

"Washclean" is not a compound based upon strong chemicals—there is where it is superior. It is a concussive proposition, so mild, so pure, so gentle in its action that we guarantee it will not dull the color or injure the most delicate fabric of any article that water will not harm—and will most effectively remove the dirt without the aid of board or machine.

"BAT" SAW THE PRESIDENT

"That Ride a Great Stunt," the Lightweight Champion Said.

Washington Jan. 15.—Battling Nelson, lightweight champion of the world, author of a 75,000-word book now in press, business man and owner of property in six states, spent two hours at the White House yesterday, most of the time in the room of William Loeb, jr., secretary to the president.

He had a pleasant visit with the president, complimented the chief executive on his horseback ride of Wednesday and departed with an autograph copy of the president's photograph.

"That ride was a great stunt," "Bat" said. "He's no spring chicken, and there are mighty few men in the country who can ride ninety-eight miles in one day and be bustling around on their feet the next day, as he is doing."

"What did the president write on my photograph?"

"Well, he wrote something pleasing to me, but I'm not advertising myself at the expense of his courtesy. I'm going to frame his picture and autograph and put it in the parlor of my home in Hegewisch, Ill. I'm on my way there now."

The president was at his desk early in spite of the ride Wednesday. Surgeon General Rixey, of the navy, walked over to the White House and inquired after the president's health. He pronounced Mr. Roosevelt fit as a fiddle, etc. Not even a limp disclosed the severe exercise of Wednesday.

A Feat for Blondin.

"Why don't you Republicans walk on the straight and narrow path in this tariff revision business?" asked Representative Champ Clark of Speaker Cannon.

"Champ," the speaker replied, "that question reminds me of a story about a man I knew in Chicago who stayed very late at a dinner at the club. When he came out he started to walk in the middle of the street."

"Hey, John," said a friend who met him as he was making the best of his way along the car tracks, "why don't you walk on the sidewalks?"

"Walk on the sidewalks?" snorted John. "Do you think I'm Blondin?" —Saturday Evening Post.

What's an Inch of Rain?

The rain fell in buckets, the thunder rumbled terribly, and the lightning drew zigzag lines of bright gold upon the violet sky.

"So you, too, don't know what an inch of rain is, exactly," said the weather clerk, as he looked at his rain measuring instrument. "Very few people do, it seems. I'll explain it to you."

"An acre is 6,272,640 square inches. An inch of water on an acre is therefore 6,272,640 cubic inches. That amount, at 27 cubic inches to the gallon, equals 22,000 gallons, or 220,000 pounds, or 100 tons."

"An inch of rain is, in other words, rain falling at the rate of 100 tons to the acre."

The Facts.

FABRICS FROM WASTE PLANTS.

Scientists Look for Important Commercial Possibilities.

Scientists in many lands have been giving an increasing amount of attention to the problem of producing from the plant world substitutes for the fibers and fabrics now generally in use. To find a new cotton plant or a new flax straw or a fiber which shall take the place of wool or silk, or to put among commercial possibilities a new material from which to manufacture fine paper, are among the aims. Four inventors have recently reached what they claim to be success, each in his own particular search, and descriptions of their products showing how widely varying results are being attained are printed in the Technical World Magazine.

From ramie, a nettle which came originally from China, but which grows well in various countries, is made a fiber which rivals cotton for usefulness, and has some of the beauties of silk. From the huge cactus leaves of our American deserts a kind of fabric called cactus-leather is manufactured, which while not a substitute for cowhide is useful for many of the purposes for which genuine leather is used. Fine needles are also being made to furnish a fiber which has qualities of usefulness in cloth-making, even clothing being successfully manufactured from it. And, finally, the Guayule shrub has been found to contain rubber to an extent which makes it commercially worth farming.

WAS A VIKING FUNERAL SHIP.

Interesting Relic of the Past Dug Up in Norway.

Recently in Norway was discovered a viking funeral ship at least 1,100 years old. Its mortuary chamber contained the bones of two women who, judging from the size of the craft and the elaborateness of its appointments, belonged to some noble and wealthy family. The vessel, which is 70 feet long and 16 feet 6 inches broad, was dug out of a tumulus, two and a half miles from the shore, near Tonsberg.

It contained an extremely valuable collection of historic remains, including a four-wheeled chariot, richly and quaintly decorated, four sledges, three of them curiously carved, several beds, linens, a mill, spinning wheels, and a variety of kitchen utensils. A diligent examination of these has led to the conclusion that the funeral ship belongs to the ninth century.

Many of the ornaments, mostly of carved wood, are unique. The ship and its strange cargo, constituting one of the most important archaeological finds ever made in Scandinavia, after being carefully restored, will be placed in the Christiania museum.

Dialect of New York Newsboys.

Although Irish and German boys have largely disappeared from the ranks of the newsboys of the city hall district, their successors, Italian, Jewish and Greek, speak the dialect of their predecessors, says the New York Sun. That dialect was the result of the give and take mingling of the Irish-American and German-American accents, resembling neither. It established a dialect which has imposed itself upon a class, a language by itself which the late recruits into the army of newsboys acquire sometimes by painful conscious effort, sometimes, in the case of the very young, unconsciously. The result is remarkable in that the trained ear can detect among those who speak that language no trace of the Italian or Jewish accent, so plainly observed in the speech of their elders. It is a fixed language, expressive, clear and musical, consisting of about 150 words.

MAY DEBATE PROHIBITION

Minister Challenged by President of Model License League.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 15.—T. M. Gilmore, president of the National Model License league, has mailed a letter to Rev. Dr. Purley A. Baker, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America, at Washington, D. C., challenging the minister to a joint debate at the convention of the License league, which is to be held in Louisville next week. In his letter, Mr. Gilmore says, among other things:

"In extending this invitation, I assure you that you will have respectful attention; that there will be no packing of the house, and that there will be no restraint on your remarks, whatever they may be."

WOMAN HAS CLAIM ON GLACIER.

Expects to Dig Some Precious Ore from Her Moving Mining Property.

Mrs. Mary E. Hart, formerly of Los Angeles, Cal., who has just returned to Seattle after visiting Alaska, has the distinction of being the first person to stake out a mining claim on a glacier while it was still in action.

Sidney Moise, with the local architect firm of Hunt & Gray, was on board the Seattle, which has just returned from a trip to the Klondike, and he states that for the first time in nine years passengers were able to make a landing at Muir glacier, near Skagway.

The glacier is considered far from safe, but Mrs. Hart, with natural love of adventure, stepped triumphantly ashore, and was followed by others eager for the experience of landing upon the forbidding ice field.

It was found that the moraine, a deposit freighted with precious ore, which is always carried with the ice in this section, had already become quite solid, and Mrs. Hart forthwith staked out a claim.

Mrs. Hart has passed a number of years in Alaska and is conversant with the mining situation there, having owned and superintended the work in several claims. In order to gain experience she at one time worked with a pick in her own mine.

THE LADY AND THE UMBRELLA.

Not Every Woman So Lucky as the Heroine of This Tale.

In the storeroom that every railroad maintains for the safe keeping of lost articles left in its care by forgetful passengers there are always to be found hundreds of umbrellas. But not every umbrella left in the cars is lost long enough to find its way to the lost department; it may fortunately be recovered sooner.

Here was a woman who had just stepped from an elevated railroad train, to find it raining, and thus reminded:

"Oh! my umbrella!" she said, and, turning to the train, which had already started along, she added: "Wait a minute!" a request by the train unheeded.

And yet this woman recovered her umbrella in a moment.

"Here it is," said another woman, who was traveling with her, had got off the car after her, and had gathered up her friend's umbrella with her own as she came along.

So this forgetful passenger recovered her umbrella promptly, but not all are so fortunate; thousands of umbrellas left behind by passengers go to the lost departments every year.

THE SHELL FISH INDUSTRY

IT AMOUNTS TO MILLIONS OF DOLLARS ANNUALLY IN THIS COUNTRY.

PLANS ARE MADE FOR ITS CONSERVATION

Representatives From Eighteen of the States Met in New York City and Organized National Association.

New York, Jan. 15.—A movement to protect oysters and other shell fish and increase the industry was launched today at a meeting of representatives from eighteen states.

A National Association of Shell Fisheries was organized at today's session, which was held in the office of the New York state commissioner.

The meeting was called by Charles R. Bacon, chief of the bureau of shell fisheries of New Jersey, after conference and correspondence with James S. Whipple, of the New York commission, and the commissioners of the other states engaged in the production of oysters or other shell fish.

The states which are interested are Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oregon, California and Washington, all of which have given enthusiastic endorsement to the proposed organization.

The object of the proposed organization is to bring together the state representatives on boards or commissions which have the care of this great natural resource of the country, that information for the advancement of the industry may be exchanged to mutual advantage.

In the states of the Atlantic seaboard the shell fish industry amounts to millions of dollars yearly and plans for its conservation have been under consideration for several years.

TELLS OF SIBERIAN HORRORS.

Sufferer Describes Agonies Endured in Russian Penal Settlement.

Horrid is the picture of existence in the penal colonies of northern Siberia given in a book just published in Germany by L. Tane, who returned to life after a burial of eight and a half years in the living grave of Kolymsk. In that time, he says, he saw one after another of his fellows succumb to suicide, hunger and insanity. They were all young men and all were sent away for terms ranging from five to ten years for political offenses.

The trip to Kolymsk takes 16 months. "I was 20 years old," he says, "when I was convicted for harboring liberal convictions. In our party were a 16-year-old boy and another a year younger. All told we were 50 politicals." The writer describes the agonies of hunger which the deported "politicals" had to endure. Mail was received three times a year.

"I shall never forget one mail day," he says. "In 18 months a certain one of our number had not heard from home. This mail brought him a letter. It was a last greeting written in an uncertain hand by his mother on her deathbed. In desperation he did what so many of our party had done before him, and which others did after he had laid him away."

DOMESTIC INCIDENT IN 1950.

By One Who Has Taken a Long Look Into the Future.

"My love," mentioned Mr. Sufferer-Gette, "I wonder—I wonder whether you would let me have the use of my latch key one day this week?"

"Latch key?" bellowed his wife. "What the blazes do you want with a latch key, my good man?"

"Well, my love," coughed Mr. Sufferer-Gette, "we are holding a series of fathers' foregatherings in the mission hall this week, when we hope to do a little needlework on behalf of the parish poor. Miss Nancy has kindly consented to come and talk to us about her recent farthest north trip, and—"

"Great heavens!" roared the irate wife, banging her pipe upon the table to emphasize her words. "Don't you know your duty is at home? Besides, on Monday I've got to attend the Women's Emancipation league; Tuesday the Sisters of Charity meeting; Wednesday the local police women's concert; Thursday the Daughters of Toil lecture; Friday, the Women's Science Research class, and on Saturday our football club's smoker. Now, don't you forget—your duty is at home!"

And so it came to pass.

HANDS CRACKED RAW AND SCALY

Itched and Burned Terribly—Arms Affected, Too—Could Not Move Thumbs Without Flesh Cracking—Sleep and Work Often Impossible—Was Fairly Worn Out.

CUTICURA SOON CURED HIS FEARFUL ECZEMA

"About a year ago an itching humor began to appear around the back of my hand. It started in to spread, and pretty soon it covered both my hands and got up over my wrists and even up to the elbows. The itching and burning were terrible. My hands got all scaly and when I scratched, as I was doing a good part of the time, the surface would be covered with blisters and then get raw. The eczema got so bad in around the pit of my thumbs that I could not move the thumbs without deep cracks appearing. I went to my doctor, but his medicine could only stop the itching and did not seem to heal my hands up at all. At night I suffered so fearfully that I could not sleep, often lying awake until well toward morning, then waking up still tired. I am a chef and did not want to touch them with water, but when I positively had to get my hands clean I would rub them with oil.

"This sort of business went on for three months and I kept trying zinc and tar ointments and such remedies with no particular benefit. I did not know what to do, for I was fairly worn out. For a long time several friends kept asking me why I didn't use Cuticura and at last I thought I would. First I got the Cuticura Soap, then Cuticura Ointment and at last Cuticura Resolvent. I put the Cuticura Ointment on at night, covering my hands with light cotton gloves. In the morning the inside of the gloves would be lined with scales, sometimes half as long as your finger, leaving nice healed places where the scales had been. In a month I was cured and have kept so now for nine months. My hands and arms are perfectly clear of all traces of eczema and I think I am well rid of it. Walter H. Cox, 16 Somerset St., Boston, Mass., Sept. 25, 1908."

BANKER TO BE LIBERATED

Chicagoan Arrested in Morocco May Secure Freedom.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—A report has gained currency here that Paul O. Stensland, serving a term in prison for looting the Milwaukee Avenue Savings bank, of which he was president, will be liberated by the board of pardons meeting in Springfield today.

Stensland was arrested in Morocco and made no defense in court for which reason, together with his endeavors to straighten out the affairs of the bank, it has been expected that his term behind the bars would be made comparatively brief.

EDDIE FOY AS "HAMLET"

APPEARED AT PROFESSIONAL MATINEE IN NEW YORK THIS AFTERNOON.

PLAY PART AS SHAKESPEARE WROTE IT

Maude Raymond Will "Do" Ophelia as It Was Intended to Be Played, According to a Dispatch From the Metropolis

New York, Jan. 15.—Please don't laugh. This is a serious matter. Eddie Foy is going to play Hamlet at a professional matinee at the Casino this afternoon. And Eddie is in earnest.

Since his presentation of the Hamlet burlesque in "Mr. Hamlet of Broadway" at the Casino, all of his professional friends have been joking him about it, particularly because he dressed the part seriously. Eddie has been telling them all that he is just as good a Hamlet as ever pounded the ties. To prove it he intends to play the part just as Shakespeare wrote it.

Whether or not Foy considers this a joke, or if way down at the bottom of his comedy heart he wants to go to the mat with the Bard of Avon, remains to be seen.

Some of his closest friends declare that Foy became afflicted with the tragedy bug at the time Dave Warfield stepped from the ridiculous to the sublime, and that Foy really wants to see what others think of him as a serious performer. Maude Raymond will play the part of Ophelia as it was intended to be played.

JOE TINKER MAY BE TRADED

Griffith Is After the Cub Shortstop for Cincinnati Team.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—Joe Tinker may not be a member of the Chicago National league ball club next year. There has been a persistent rumor floating around baseball circles for several days that a deal is on to trade the Cub shortstop to the Cincinnati club for Mike Mowrey and Ruddy Hulswitt.

President Murphy, of the Cubs, last night refused to affirm or deny that the trade was being considered. It would probably be the most unpopular deal the West side magnate could make.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 15.—"I'll be ready to die when Missouri has a republican governor."

Mr. Schroeder was 90 years old. He was born in Germany and moved to Clay county forty years ago, living continuously on the same farm, two miles north of Harlem. He left a widow, four sons and two daughters.

The Drag in Public Schools.

The pace of classes in our public grammar schools is determined by the average pupil, or perhaps pupils a little below the average. In view of the task thrown upon our grammar schools, of taking all sorts of raw material—children of foreign birth, children in whose homes study is impossible—we can hardly complain that the work often drags. Our chief criticism is that in so many cases no provision is made for promoting the bright children more rapidly. They are held back in a lock-step with the rest. The boy who can easily complete the program for three years in two or two and a half, and who would profit largely by moving ahead quickly, is not allowed to break the ranks. He is under no stimulus to exert himself and do his best. As a result, he dawdles and forms thoroughly bad habits of application, habits which may cling to him and clog him through life.—New York Post.

Plant Stones of Philippines.

"Plant stones" seem to be among the rarest of the strange products of the Philippine islands. The tabashir is a variety of opal sometimes deposited in the joints of the bamboo, and the beautiful greenish-pink scintillating specimens of the Philippines are stated by a German publication to be much more costly than the ordinary opal. Thousands of canestalks may be examined without finding one of these curious gems, which are probably the result of disease or injury. nuts and are found, ranging in size from a pinhead to a pea, by carefully examining the interior of ripe nuts. About a dozen of these exquisite pearls—all from the Philippines—are said to be preserved among the treasures of European museums.

Difference of Opinion.

Mrs. Cobden-Sanderson thinks that American women, with the possible exception of Chicago women, are too much interested in their own individuality and think too little of the community, in other words are lacking in civic pride. In England, she says, there is not the sharp line between men's interests and women's interests, but the policemen who are detailed to keep the ladies out of the house of commons may have a different opinion on the subject.

Help.

The young divine untangled himself from a rather powerful blue billow. "I hope," he said, "that you are going to do something this summer for the slum children's seaside home?" "Oh, yes," she said, brightly, as she brushed the water from her face. "They're getting up a charity dance, you know; and I've already ordered my director gown for it."

KISSED AND CALLED "MAMMA!"

Actress's Mother Learns of Kansas City Son-in-Law.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—Here's another secret that has just been revealed: Alma Youlin, a Chicago girl, who is prima donna of the "Honeymoon Trail" company, is now the bride of Frank Ashlock of Kansas City, Mo., a hotel man, formerly with the Baltimore hotel of the town by the Kaw. They were married secretly.

Mrs. Mary E. Youlin, 149 Thirty-sixth street, discovered the fact when a tall good looking young man walked into her flat addressed her as "Mamma" and claimed a son's privilege to kiss her.

RID OF HUSBAND AT LAST

But Mrs. Ella Travis Is Almost Sorry Now He Is Gone.

St. Louis, Jan. 15.—Mrs. Ella Travis mourns the loss of her husband, Cassius M. Travis. Once she proclaimed to all St. Louis that she was anxious to give him away. Now that he is gone she weeps.

"But I'm not crying for him, exactly," she said. "I'm crying because he did not leave me any money to support myself. I don't want him. I won't let him come back. I'm lonesome, but not for him. It's my chickens I lonesome for. I had to sell them all this morning to get $15 to pay my rent."

The Travis home is at 6816 Old Manchester road. A year ago it was the mecca of women who made a pilgrimage there to "look over" the husband whom Mrs. Travis said she would give to anyone who would take him.

In a letter which she received from him, he said:

"Don't think I ran away with another woman. You have proven more than enough for me in the last two years. No more, thank you."

SEDALIA THEATRE.

Hortense Neilson.

Miss Hortense Neilson, noted as an actress of exceptional ability in the portrayal of emotional roles, comes to the Sedalia theatre on Sunday night, with her company of New York players in the powerful emotional drama, "Hedda Gabler," by Henrik Ibsen, Norway's most celebrated dramatist.

Miss Nielson is scoring the great triumph of her career this season in what is generally considered the best and most popular drama written within a decade.

The play is a brilliant drama of Norway's most exclusive society. It is a most concise, well constructed play, intense in its emotional scenes, witty and epigrammatic.

There are few plays now before the American public that have met with such lasting favor.

Miss Nielson has earned a splendid reputation as an unusually gifted actress, and she is said to play "Hedda Gabler" with a brilliancy and depth of feeling seldom seen.

An excellent New York company is supporting Miss Nielson, insuring a first class performance.

WOOD'S OPERA HOUSE.

The play to be presented at Wood's opera house on Sunday night, Jan. 17, by the Stanley Stock Co., has been in their repertoire for two seasons, because where they presented it last season the people called for them to repeat it again this season. "Why Girls Go Wrong" is the greatest rural comedy drama being presented anywhere this season.

Usual popular prices are within the reach of every one, and ladies free Monday night, as usual.

GUILTY OF ELECTION FRAUD

Thomas O'Brien Given 3½ Years by St. Louis Judge.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 15.—Thomas O'Brien, charged with fraudulent registration, was convicted by a jury in the criminal court yesterday and sentenced to three years and six months in the penitentiary.

This is the twelfth conviction as a result of the election investigations conducted by the grand jury at the instance of former Circuit Attorney Sager.

Seibert Jones, the circuit attorney, did not appear in the case, and the state was represented by Assistant Circuit Attorney Newton, one of the men held over from the Sager administration.

O'Brien was charged with having registered in the third precinct of the Sixteenth ward under the name of "John Murphy." The state proved that this name was fictitious.

Crow With White Feathers.

Fred Sheerer, living one and one-half miles west of town, killed a crow Wednesday which has a white feather in each wing, giving it an unusual appearance, says the Houstonian. Mr.

Sheerer says he has noticed the crow at different times for two years, but never succeeded in getting a shot at it until Wednesday.

THE MODESTY OF VICTOR HUGO. Great French Poet and Author Was Aware of His Own Merit.

M. Capponi, the "doyen" of the Italian newspaper correspondents at Paris is publishing his reminiscences. One of his best stories relates to Victor Hugo, on whose eightieth birthday he called to present the homage of the foreign press.

"We entered (he writes) and found Victor Hugo seated in a great armchair, as on a throne, surrounded by his literary court. He welcomed us with a kindly smile lighting up his robust face, framed in a thick, white beard. I felt a little nervous, but, collecting my courage, recited the compliment I had so carefully rehearsed. I told him that the correspondents of the foreign newspapers wished to associate themselves in the homage which the entire French nation was paying to him as the greatest living poet and the greatest living author. Victor Hugo, when I had finished, took hold of my arm and said, giving it a friendly squeeze: 'I am quite of your opinion.'"

"And we withdrew," M. Capponi concludes, "only too pleased to think that Victor Hugo shared our opinion of his merits."

THE COLONNAS PART AMERICAN. Oldest Family in Europe Has This Unique Distinction.

At a Newport luncheon a diplomat discussed blue blood.

"You Americans have the best of everything," he said. "It is but natural that the bluest blood in all Europe should be part American."

"The bluest blood in Europe, the oldest European family, is the great Roman house of Colonna. Without a break the Colonnas trace their descent from one powerful prince to another clear back to Julian the Apostate."

"No royal family of Europe equals this. The Romans of Burgundy, the descendants of the old Burgundian kings, alone approach it."

"And this Colonna family, a better family than the Kaiser's or King Edward's, is now part American; it half belongs to America, for its head, Prince Maffeo, is the husband of that beautiful American who was Miss Mackey."

SHOWS THE HUMAN VIBRATIONS.

Frenchman Who Thinks He Has Photographed the Emotions.

Dr. Baraduc of Paris has been lecturing, says the Health Record, at the Theosophical society's room in London on human vibration. He showed many photographs of these alleged vibrations by placing a sensitized film on one of the nerve centers.

He usually places the film at night and leaves it till morning. The vibrations of the subject throw the nitrate of silver on the film into a corresponding form of vibration, which is found registered on the film when developed, just as the light reflected from an object through the lens of a camera registers the form of that object.

Dr. Baraduc had also many pictures taken in the ordinary way by means of the camera. In these various states of emotion are shown. Sudden anger appears as a sort of whirling shower of sparks and vapor. A state of high spiritual contemplation produces a misty globe of light some way above the sinner's head.

In one picture the etheric double of a woman kneeling in prayer is shown. According to the doctor the etheric cosmic forces are continually streaming into us and becoming individualized, or streaming out, being individualized, mingling again with the general stream.

One photograph showed the vibration of telepathic communication—some had lines in ribbons of light, showing attachment. In one, taken as the doctor's wife passed away, the line or bond which had always appeared between them is seen for the first time broken.

Convert to New Creed.

At a dinner recently given in honor of Augustus Thomas, the playwright, Mr. Thomas discussed his recent efforts at writing plays about telepathy, the occult, etc., and said:

"I am compelled to admit that the occult is becoming popular. Only the other day a chorus girl was entering the lobby of a theater when she met the manager.

"Well, I declare, Mr. Brown," she exclaimed, "if this isn't odd. Here I was just thinking of you this minute, and now you turn up. I always did believe in osteopathy."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

MORE POLICE BOARD GOSSIP

Governor, However, Will Name the Men Next Wednesday.

Jefferson City, Jan. 14.—Henry M. Beardsley, former mayor of Kansas City, was the guest of Governor Hadley last night. His name has been mentioned several times in connection with the police board.

The governor said last night that he would not announce the appointment of his Kansas City commissioners until he comes to Kansas City next Wednesday to argue the 2-cent fare case in the United States circuit court.

The impression here is that he will name R. B. Middlebrook to serve until E. C. Messervey can take the place. The other place might go to Mr. Beardsley, Thomas H. Reynolds, D. J. Haft, George Hoffman or any one of half a dozen others.

JOHN D. TO LIVE 100 YEARS

Oil Man's Physician Says That He Is in Excellent Health Now.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 15.—Dr. H. Biggar, physician and personal friend of John D. Rockefeller, denied the report that the oil magnate is suffering from rheumatism. He says Mr. Rockefeller is enjoying perfect health.

"He will live to be 100 years old," said Dr. Biggar.

"How does he do it?" asked a friend.

"By three simple rules: First, he avoids all worry; second, he takes plenty of exercise in the open air, third, he never overloads his stomach. He always gets up from the table a little hungry. If men would follow Mr. Rockefeller's physical methods we would all be young at 70."

Dr. Biggar will join Mr. Rockefeller in Augusta, Ga., soon.

"Maude!" gasped the young man, "you mustn't take what I've been saying to you seriously. I hope you understand that it was only a flirtation, and that when I asked you to become my wife, I—er—well, you understand, don't you?"—Cleveland Leader.

Mysteries of Civilization.

"You have persuaded the Indian to give up his picturesque headdress and blankets and wear hats and trousers," said the sardonic person.

"Yes; in the interest of civilization."

"And I suppose it is also in the interest of civilization that we pay high prices for these cast-off garments of the Indian and use them for wall decorations."

It Is.

"How are you getting on in your endeavor to win the hand of Miss Skads?"

"Fine."

"Why, I heard that the entire family was down on you, all but she?"

"Well, isn't that doing fine?"—Houston Post.

Away with Clothes.

If one takes a somewhat broader and less technical view of the menacing conditions disclosed by the London Lancet's series of exposures, and is large-minded enough to appreciate the essential artificiality of the whole modern scheme of clothes, there seems but one logical conclusion from the premises, viz., clothes must go or the human race will be devoured and exterminated by microbes. The conveniences of the household, from scrubbing brush to the grand piano, are nothing more nor less than germ traps. From kitchen to drawing room and garret the house is alive with microscopic brigands. Hence, houses must be given up also. And it thus appears that science as well as socialism urges a return to the misnamed days of barbarism toward which the "back to nature" folk look so longingly.

CHILD'S NARROW ESCAPE

The Mother Smothered and Beat Out the Flames.

Hellyn, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, east of town, would probably have been burned to death Tuesday but for the presence of mind and prompt action of her mother, says the Houstonian.

The little child was playing near the stove, the door of which was open, and in some manner her dress became ignited.

Mrs. Smith, who was sewing in the same room, heard the child cry, and when she turned she saw the babe's dress blazing.

Mrs. Smith seized the child and wrapping her in the folds of her own skirt, smothered and beat the flames out.

The child, while sustaining some burns, escaped serious injury, and most probably death, by the pluck and coolness of her mother.

THEIR FREEDOM OF THE FARM.

Uncle Charlie Seaver's Welcome to a Large Picnic Party.

"I hope you don't mind if we tramp over your farm this afternoon and picnic awhile in your woods?" cheerfully asked the spokesman of a large picnic party as they walked into the gates of the yard, says Puck.

"Not at all! Not at all!" laughed Uncle Charlie Seaver as he dropped his stockinged feet from the veranda post and shoved up his specs. "Just mosey right along and have a good time. The farm is yours for the day. Take that road near the corner and help yourself. Step a little light, though, in going through those medders along the creek, as I have never been able to 'sterminate that bed of rattlesnakes in there. But there's only a couple o' dozen of the pesky critters left. I'll get 'em all soon. Better walk around the north pasture where old Joshua is a pawin' and a-bellerin'."

For he is a powerful bad varmint, and when he commands th' sun to rise you bet he gets. That little ravine back o' the woods is a fine place for a picnic even if Hank Hawkins does say that th' ice dam at the head o' th' gulley is weak and liable to bust any minute. I took some o' th' braces out o' th' dam yesterday jiss to prove Hank is a liar.

"If that buck sheep over in the orchard gets funny one o' you grab him by th' horns and kick th' wool off him. He's been a mite too frisky since he nearly killed one o' the hired men. Don't let th' young 'uns get too friendly with those hornets' nests in the berry patch below th' grain fields. What! Go in up th' road a piece? Why, yes, I reckon Wall Weaver'll let ye in his big woods. Better stay right here. I give ye th' freedom o' th' farm!"

World's Work.

Scene of Deadly Struggles.

It is doubtful if there is any portion of the earth upon which there are so many deadly struggles as upon the earth around the trunk of a tree. Upon this small arena there are struggles, fierce and wild; here nature is "red in tooth and claw." When a tree is small and tender, countless insect come to feed upon it. Birds come to devour these insects. Around the tree daily are almost merciless struggles for existence. These deadly struggles occur not only in the day time, but in the night. Mice, rats and rabbits destroy millions of young trees. While at their deadly feast, many a time have they been surprised by hawks, and then they are at a banquet where they themselves are eaten. The owl, the faithful night-watchman of trees, often swoops down at night, and as a result some little tree is splashed with the blood of the animal that came to feed upon it.

The Adventurous Feline.

"Hello, is this the electric light company? Do you take cats down? Yes, cats?—she is on a pole, and crying just terribly. She must have been up there a week, for she's just as thin—What?—Oh, this is Fifty-ninth avenue. A big dog is barking at her, too, and she—what street? Why, I don't know! I don't live on this street, do I?—Oh, yes, of course!—Bristol street, the druggist says—Oh, will you?—You are so good! And a man just said she is playing with the trans-former and might short-circuit herself, or something. Well, thank you very much. I am so glad.—Good-by.—Success Magazine.

College Professors on Defensive.

President G. Stanley Hall of Clark university announces with solemnity that college professors must organize for self protection and boycott all news gatherers as enemies to academic dignity and weight. He says: "College professors must do something to keep themselves from being made ridiculous. The time has come when a college professor cannot open his mouth without being made to look, speak and act like a fool."

HEMENWAY IN HERO ROLE

INDIANA SENATOR CLIMBED OVER CARRIAGE TOP AND STOPPED RUNAWAY.

THE DRIVER WAS THROWN FROM SEAT

Earnest Effort to Keep the Sensational Rescue of the Women Occupants of the Vehicle Secret Fails.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Senator Jas. A. Hemenway, of Indiana, has qualified for a Carnegie hero medal. It has become known that he performed a feat of courage in stopping a runaway team that entitles him to consideration in this respect.

Monday evening, after the reception at the home of Vice President Fairbanks, a team drawing a carriage dashed down Fourteenth street and swung into F street.

As it turned the corner the driver was thrown from the box and the team ran on down F street for a few blocks, when it was stopped and the occupants drove away, giving no hint as to their identity.

It was rumored that the carriage contained prominent people who had been guests at the vice president's reception, but their names were not known.

Yesterday the secret came out, and it was learned that the carriage contained Senator Hemenway and his daughter, Mrs. Hart, of Louisville, Ky., and the senator's cousin, Mrs. George Bishop, of Washington.

When the driver was thrown from his seat Senator Hemenway opened the door of the carriage, climbed up to the driver's seat, grasped the reins and brought the team to a standstill. He then drove away before his name could be learned.

The senator, who is a long-limbed and active man, raised in the country and familiar with horses, apparently did not consider his feat anything remarkable.

PORKER STILL ALIVE

After Being Buried Under a Straw Stack for Two Months.

Hillsboro, O., Jan. 15.—After having been without food or water for two months, a hog belonging to S. S. Winter, a farmer, living near Samantha, six miles north of this place, is still alive, with excellent prospects of a career of ultimate usefulness in the family commissariat.

With a number of others this animal was buried under a falling straw stack early in November. All but this one were taken out at the time, although some of them were crushed or smothered to death.

Yesterday Mr. Winter had occasion to remove the remaining straw, when the missing porker was brought to light, still able to squeal, but decidedly thin and puny, as might have been expected after its enforced abstinence from refreshment.

AN ESCAPED MANIAC

Arrested for Looting Ohio Central Railway Depot.

Marion, O., Jan. 15.—Captured yesterday as an Ohio Central railway station looter, a prisoner brought here by the sheriff of Morrow county, has been identified as D. B. Needham, a member of a wealthy Boston family, an escaped inmate of the insane asylum in Worcester, Mass.

He is being held on telegraphic orders from G. W. Capon, of Boston, his brother-in-law. Capon says Needham lost his fortune in the south and his mind at the same time.

The prisoner says he was captured by St. Louis detectives, put to work on the streets in St. Louis, then dressed in poor clothes and started east. He objected to wearing these clothes, and leaped from the train near Galion.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always treat, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label, if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good! Hereafter for the very reason, mothers and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

This Line for Sedalia.

The Kansas City Star of yesterday afternoon printed the following of local interest:

"The final survey of the Kansas City-Southeastern Traction company for the proposed electric road between Kansas City and Lone Jack has been completed. Work will begin soon on the line, say those behind it. It is one of the several divisions to be built which will result in a through line from Kansas City to Jefferson City, with two or three branch lines. "The main line will pass from Kansas City through Lees, Rayton, Little Blue, Lee's Summit, Lone Jack, Warrensburg and Sedalia to Jefferson City, 125 miles. There will be a branch line fifteen miles long from Lee's Summit to Greenwood, Pleasant Hill and Harrisonville. Another branch will run from Pittsville through Holden, twenty-four miles to Clinton, the county seat of Henry county."

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 54.

Just imagine a man pretending to follow in the footsteps of Christ and then standing behind a saloon bar dishing out drink to young men, KNOWING at the time that 100,000 young men are to fill the places of the drunkards that die every year in the United States.

Just think of a man pretending to follow in the steps of Christ and standing on an altar built for the worship of God, and there form his position of respect and influence, instruct his followers to go to the polls and VOTE for the perpetuation of a traffic that causes the death of 100,000 men annually in the United States; causes the death of over 2,500 infants each year by their drunken mothers smothering them to death in bed, and causes, by accurate reports, 1/2 of all the destitution in the entire world. How can ANY soul, no matter how thoughtless, be so blinded by the FEAR of "high taxes."

"Bum" Train Service.

Otto Preuss and Ed Boucher, becoming disgusted with the railroad passenger service, walked to Sedalia Tuesday afternoon, says the Smith-Times.

Clarence Harris, a postal clerk between Sedalia and Parsons on the Katy, followed along with a second section of the same mode of travel, and made the run from here to the East Sedalia car line in one hour and ten minutes.

Reduce Pullman Rates.

A 12 1/2 per cent reduction in Pullman rates between Los Angeles and certain Southwestern points went into effect today.

The reduction is believed to have resulted from investigations recently made by the interstate commerce commission.

Hospital Arrivals.

Arrivals at the Katy hospital include the following:

W. B. Kent, engineer, Denison.
H. C. Bruce, machinist helper, Denison.
Tim Tierney, car repairer, Sedalia.
L. Cox, brakeman, Denison.

Automatic Couplers.

The Katy shops at Parsons, Kan., were closed yesterday, owing to a shortage of natural gas.

Col. A. C. Miner, traveling passenger agent for the Katy, left this afternoon for a business trip to Jefferson City.

Katy passenger train No. 3, southbound, arrived this morning on the dot, 8:50, while No. 2, from the south, came in over two hours late.

Tim Tierney, a car repairer at the Katy shops, is among the new patients at the Katy hospital, he being confined there with rheumatism.

Members of Prairie Queen lodge No. 18, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, met last night in I. O. O. F. hall and installed the newly elected officers.

Charles Green, traveling passenger agent for the Big Four, with headquarters in Kansas City, visited Sedalia today in the interest of that road.

Missouri Pacific train No. 11 this morning had a special sleeper from St. Louis to Sedalia, having aboard a delegation of Scottish Rite Masons, who return to St. Louis tonight on train No. 4.

The "swift" mail train, No. 7, on the Missouri Pacific, which has been three or four hours late for the past several days, came in this morning only a few minutes behind the regular schedule.

Cold and damp weather has resulted in wonderful increase in the number of patients being treated at the Katy hospital—section laborers, extra gang workmen, trainmen and other classes of employes coming in rapidly for treatment for pulmonary ailments.

A Chicago & Alton passenger train plowed through a crowd of 200 workmen who had just alighted from another train at Madison, Ill., yesterday morning, killing one man and seriously injuring another. The men were on their way to work in a foundry and were blinded by the glare of the headlight and deafened with the roar of the speeding train.

Horses Made Deaf by Lightning.

An unusual incident occurred at Clark's Corners, two miles north of Conesus Lake, when an electric storm passed over the place. The barn on the Bartlett farm was struck by lightning during the night, and when Stephen Bartlett went to the barn in the morning he found that the post between two of the horses stalled in the barn was smashed to kindling.

Although the horses must have been rendered senseless by the shock, they did not show any injury until after being hitched up. When Bartlett began to gee, haw and cluck to the horses they paid no attention whatever to him, but as soon as he touched his whip to them they responded. An examination showed the animals had had their eardrums broken by the crash. Both horses are now stone deaf.—Geneseo correspondence Rochester Herald.

A BOARD OF CONTROL

Junketing Committee Expected to Furnish Reason.

Jefferson City, Jan. 15.—Argument for the establishment of a state board of control is expected to be furnished by the forthcoming report of the junketing committee.

"They have found," said an administration member, who has been conferring with the members of the committee and Governor H. S. Queer Fijian Plant.

There is nothing under the sun quite so quaint, so weird and witchlike as the pandanus prairies of Fiji. The pandanus, or screw plant, as it is called, is a most grotesque specimen of the vegetable kingdom even at the best and in the early stages of its growth. In its very young days it is of an extraordinary screwlike shape, and looks as though some kind of hand had taken hold of its long, swordlike leaves and twisted them round and round. Later it straightens out a bit, and from it grow a number of tall wooden stilts. Its foliage is simple, a number of drooping, ragged tufts for all the world like mops, and very mournful looking. Among these mops hang the fruit, in shape like a pineapple, made up of hard red and yellow kernels, woody and fibrous, and quite uneatable from a European's point of view.

Our Real Army.

No nation ever can or ever did maintain at all times a standing army sufficiently great to defend itself against all other powers. The strength and the dependence of every government is in her citizen soldiers, and is in exact proportion to their bravery and effectiveness. The "state militia" or "national guard" in our own country, the auxiliary reserve in England, the Landwehr and the Landsturm in Germany, stand behind and form the great military reserve of the regular armies of these nations.—Army and Navy Life.

THANKS, WRITES DICKEY

State Chairman Expresses Appreciation to Sedalia Flambeau Boys.

In a letter addressed to the Sedalia Flambeau club, State Chairman W. S. Dickey tells of the appreciation of himself, Governor Hadley and his party friends for services at Jefferson City. Mr. Dickey writes as follows: "I wish to again thank you and the captain and all of the men of the club for the earnest effort you put forth to make the occasion a success. The fireworks were magnificent and were fully enjoyed, and the men are certainly to be congratulated on being able to give the display under such circumstances, in a blinding storm, with the ground frozen and covered with several inches of snow. I assure you that the governor and all his party friends who were at Jefferson City thoroughly appreciate the work that was done by Sedalia in celebrating his inauguration. Very truly yours—W. S. Dickey."

KILLED MAN AND CUT HIM UP

Pennsylvania Farmer, Accused by Girl, Confesses.

York, Pa., Jan. 15.—Harry Keener, a York county farmer, has confessed that the story told by a girl of this city, that he had killed a man on his farm last July is true.

The identity of the victim is still unknown. The girl accused Keener while she was lying on what she believed to be her deathbed.

The girl in the case is Miss Lorenza Tawser, aged 18. Last summer she was employed on Keener's farm near Seven Valleys. Last week she attended the murder trial in this city of a one-armed negro and was taken sick while listening to the testimony.

After being taken home she was seized with spasms, and fearing that she would die she told the story that led to Keener's arrest.

MORMON ELDERS MOVE ON

Ordered Out of Town, Five March Through Storm.

Central City, W. Va., Jan. 15.—In a blinding storm of sleet and snow, five Mormon elders walked four miles from here to Huntington yesterday, after receiving notice at midnight to leave town.

A dozen representative citizens, presumably acting on authority from various secret organizations, visited the hotel where the elders had been making their headquarters for the last two months, and delivered the warning.

Several days ago the elders were notified by a secret society to leave town before the end of the week. Instead of leaving they went to the hotel, where they hoped to have protection.

It is said plans had been made to tar and feather the men and throw them into the Ohio river had they ignored the final warning.

WEDDING IN THE COUNTRY

That of Mr. T. K. Barley, Jr., and Miss Sallie W. Spears.

Miss Sallie W. Spears and Mr. T. K. Barley, Jr., were married by Rev. C. Shouse, of Nelson, at the home of the bride, near Hughesville, on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, where many friends and relatives were assembled.

The parlor was decorated in green and white, with a large white bell, under which the bridal party stood.

The attendants were Miss Nora Barley, sister of the groom, and Mr. Hugh Spears, brother of the bride. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Swope.

Many beautiful presents were received, of silver, cut glass, linens, china, rockers and money.

The dining room was beautifully decorated in pink and white, where a sumptuous supper was served of turkey, oysters, salads and coffee, after which all departed, wishing the bride and groom a long and happy married life.

On Thursday the wedding party took dinner with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Barley.

THE STATE FAIR OF 1909

PREMIUM LIST AND RULES REGARDING EDUCATIONAL EXHIBIT ENTRIES.

HOWARD A. GASS, DIRECTOR IN CHARGE

The Entries Will Close at Noon on September 25—Fair Always Held During First Week in October.

The Democrat-Sentinel is in receipt of the following self-explanatory communication and premium list from Howard A. Gass, of Jefferson City, state superintendent of public schools:

Dear Brother Editor—I send herewith premium list for the educational exhibit at the Missouri state fair. I hope you will find it worthy of notice in the columns of your paper. The idea of having an educational exhibit in connection with our state fair is comparatively new, but has taken a pretty strong hold upon the people. The movement originated less than a year ago, and the first exhibit was quite a success, though only about $200 in premiums was offered. This year $1,000 will be offered, and, doubtless, the exhibit will be correspondingly better.

I am greatly indebted to the newspapers for publishing the first premium list, and I am sure the marked success of the first exhibit is due largely to their indorsement. I am also very grateful for the wide and generous notice given my call for the citizens' meeting of the 15th inst.

I trust I am not drawing too heavily upon your generosity by appealing to you again so soon.

Thanking you for past favors, and hoping you may give this list notice in an early issue of your valuable paper, I am, sincerely yours,—Howard A. Gass, State Superintendent of Public Schools.

Premium List and Rules.

For the purpose of the state fair exhibit, schools are classified as country schools, town schools, high schools and special schools. Country schools include those having one or two teachers; town schools all those having more than two teachers; high schools include those of the first, second and third classes; special schools include high schools of cities of more than 100,000 population, normal schools, colleges, universities and schools not included in one of the above classes. By a school is meant the entire system in any one district. Work shall be entered by a school and not by an individual. A school may make two entries in any one premium number, but not more than two.

All material submitted for exhibition must be work done as a part of the school course, after the beginning of the school year 1908-9.

A writing book must be complete in order to be entered.

Essays and original stories must be written in ink on paper not larger than 9x12 and not smaller than 6x9 inches. All drawings, paintings and other flat surface exhibits must be on material of good quality, 6x9, 9x12 or 18x24. Pictures in crayon, water colors or oil may be exhibited in frame, at option of exhibitor. All exhibits that require mounting on flat surface must be mounted on heavy white, gray, drab, red or black cardboard, 6x9, 9x12 or 18x24. All other exhibits must be so assembled and displayed as to economize space. Each specimen or work must bear the name and age of pupil, name of teacher, school and county.

Before material can be entered for exhibition by a school, a statement must be filed by the teacher, certifying that the work has been done in accordance with the rules prescribed. Blanks for such certification may be obtained from the state superintendent or any county commissioner or county superintendent.

Exhibits may be sent to Hon. John T. Stinson, secretary state fair, Sedalia, Mo., any time after May 1, 1909, where they will be stored until the opening of the fair. Proper duplicate entry tags will be issued to teachers submitting such exhibits.

Two premiums are offered for each group, for best and for second best. The first premium in each case will be awarded to the school making the best exhibit in that particular number; second, to the school making the second best exhibit.

The state fair directors will procure a judge to award the premiums, designating the specimen winning the first and also the one winning the second, and turn the list with premiums over to the state superintendent of public schools for distribution. Freight or express charges must be prepaid on exhibits to Sedalia. After the close of the fair all school exhibits will become the property of the state fair unless the exhibitor deposits with the secretary a sufficient amount of money to prepay expenses of repacking and shipping.

Ever Feel This Way?

THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS, described by ladies who have been cured by Cardui, may be just LIKE YOUR OWN CASE.
If so, take CARDUI, for YOUR female troubles. It will help you.

ACHED ALL OVER

Two years ago, my health was very bad. I suffered untold misery and ached all over every month. At times I wished for death, to end my suffering. At last I decided to try Wine of Cardui. Twelve bottles of this wonderful medicine stopped my suffering, and made my life worth living.

MRS. MATTIE CAMPBELL, Ratcliff, Texas.

FEMALE CATARRH

I suffered for nine (9) years with female catarrh, which caused many disagreeable symptoms. At last I decided to abandon other medicines and try Wine of Cardui, and have been improving ever since. Now I am almost as strong as I ever was and ask for no one to help me with my housework.

CORDE ABERNATHY, Gaffney, S. C.

MORNING SICKNESS

I cannot say enough in praise of Cardui. It is a blessing to suffering women. During pregnancy, I vomited nearly all I ate and my limbs were swollen, so I could not walk. A week after taking Cardui, the swelling was nearly all gone, and though I have had 12 children, the baby that came after taking Cardui, was the easiest birth and the fattest baby I ever had.

MRS. ALICE COTTEN, Wheeling, W. Va.

ALL RUN DOWN

About five years ago, I was all run down, having been afflicted with female trouble for several years. The doctor said I would have to have an operation, but I began to take Cardui, and before I had taken half a bottle I felt like a different woman. Whenever I feel over-worked or run-down, a few doses of Cardui make me feel better.

MRS. A. BRYNER, Cameron, Ill.

SUCH DIZZY SPELLS

I suffered from female trouble every month, ever since I was 16. I had such dizzy spells and headache that I would have to go to bed, and was so weak I could not get around for days at a time. Ever since I began to take Cardui, the dizzy spells and other female troubles stopped, and now I am well and happy.

MRS. M. E. ALLRED, Hartford, Wash.

SAVED FROM OPERATION

The first three years I was married was the most wretched part of my life. I suffered everything with female troubles, had such bearing down pains I could hardly walk across the room, and was in awful misery. I tried several medicines without relief, and the doctor said I would have to have an operation, but my husband said no, and so I began to take Cardui. After the first three bottles I felt like another person, slept better, didn't have to be operated on and now we have a fine baby girl.

MRS. MABEL LINT, Wilmore, Kas.

NEARLY CRAMPED TO DEATH

For nine years, I suffered with severe female disorders, was irregular, my back and side would almost kill me and every month I nearly cramped to death. I tried everything, without relief, and lost all hope, till one day I took Cardui, which toned me up, so I can do my housework with all ease and now enjoy good health.

SARAH J. HOSKINS, Cary, Ky.

DIZZY, DULL HEADACHE

I am 60 years old, and had female trouble, pains low down in back, a dizzy, dull headache, palpitation of the heart, and was so weak I could only sit up a little while at a time. I had one of our best physicians, but saw I was going down, rapidly, so decided to try Cardui. Before I had finished the first bottle I felt much improved and now that I have taken 10 bottles I am up, able to do my work.

MRS. E. BEATY, Lusk, Tex.

A TOTAL WRECK

Cardui is certainly the best and most wonderful tonic there is, to build up shattered nerves and for all other female troubles. I have used it for myself and daughters. Before taking it, I was a total wreck, but after I began improved from the first and I know that it saved my life.

MRS. EVELINE MCGREW, Austin, Tex.

ALMOST A SKELETON

I was very weak from female disorders and was almost a skeleton. It tired me to walk just a little. Now, I do all the sewing, cooking, washing, ironing and general housework, for a family of nine (9), and haven't been in bed a single day, for over two (2) years. I think Cardui is the greatest remedy on earth.

MRS. LULA WALDEN, Gramling, S. C.

PAINS IN SIDE

Before I began to take Cardui, I was so weak and nervous I could hardly be up and could hardly bear the noise of my children. I had such a pain in my side, it hurt me every breath. I also had a hacking cough, could not eat well, fell off a great deal and lay awake at nights or else had scary dreams. Inside of one week, after taking Cardui, the pain had left my side and in three weeks I felt like another person. Now I feel right well.

MRS. DORA STAUFFER, Wily, Va.

SAVED HER LIFE

I take great pleasure in telling you how Cardui benefited me, for I know it saved my life. I was troubled with flooding spells and other female troubles for years, and was so weak I could not walk alone across the room. I had not taken one bottle of Cardui before I was greatly improved and when I had taken two bottles, I felt like a new woman.

MRS. RUTH WILSON, Travelers Rest, S. C.

COULD NOT SLEEP

You know how sick I was, when I first wrote you for advice and you told me to take Cardui. I had bad fainting spells, could not eat, was weak and thin and had such awful pains all over. I was so nervous, I could not go to sleep at night till about four o'clock in the morning. After taking 11 bottles of Wine of Cardui I am now well and strong; can eat anything, sleep all night, can do all my housework and feel better than in years.

MRS. F. G. PETERSON, Hershey, Neb.

FEMALE PAINS

I did not know that anything could stop female pains, from which I had suffered for two years, until I tried your wonderful medicine, Wine of Cardui. I had other female troubles besides, but was cured in a little while. Cardui is a blessing to womankind. I recommend it to all my friends.

GERTRUDE GATLIN, Timberville, Miss.

'SO IRREGULAR'

I was so irregular and suffered from other female troubles, but I took three bottles of Cardui and it has done me more good than any medicine I ever took in my life. Now I am perfectly regular and on the way to health again.

MRS. MARY FREEMAN, Paint Lick, Ky.

WORKS LIKE A CHARM

I recommend Cardui to all my lady friends. I think it is the best medicine for female troubles. It works like a charm. I had suffered untold misery for 20 years, with various female troubles. I took all kinds of medicines, but nothing did me as much good as Wine of Cardui. Now I am regular, suffer no pain and am better in every way.

MRS. MATTIE CHRISTOPHER, Atlanta, Ga.

EASY CONFINEMENT

I cannot find words to express my gratitude to Wine of Cardui, for helping me in my last confinement. Formerly I suffered all day and night, but this last one was a fine big baby girl; she weighed 9-12 lbs. at birth and I was sick only 45 minutes. I never felt better in my life than I do now.

MRS. IRA GRAY, Budd, Ill.

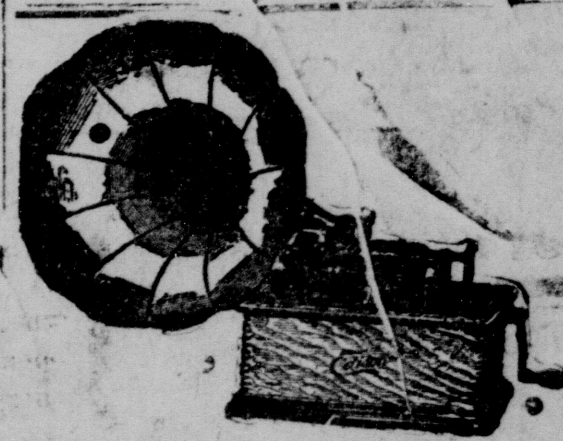

NUMB SPELLS

I suffered with numb fainting spells ever since I was sixteen. I would lie, sometimes all day, like I was dead, and could not talk or see. They spent hundreds of dollars on doctors, but nothing helped me. At last, about 4 years ago, I began to take Cardui, and since then I have never had any more of those spells. I took five bottles of Cardui, and can truthfully say that it cured me.

RIGHT SPIRIT AT LAMONTE

One Failure Does Not Discourage the Good People There

Lamonte will within the next few months have electric lights. Representative business men of that city say so, and already steps are being taken to carry plans formulated to a successful termination.

The plant will either be a municipal one, or will be owned and operated by a local company, of that place, which means that it will be required to give the service at a nominal rate.

Although Lamonte had a little bad luck by not striking gas, oil or mineral in paying quantities in their recent prospecting, citizens of that town are still ready to do more work of the kind in the way of drilling holes in old brother earth, and many feel very confident of striking something that will prove worth while.

There is no case on record of a cough, cold or influenza developing into pneumonia after Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken, as it cures the most obstinate deep seated coughs and colds. Why take anything else—Arlington Pharmacy.

Scottish Rite Masons Meet.

Sixty-four Scottish Rite Masons, sixteen each from St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph and Joplin, today began a two-days' conference at the Masonic temple at Seventh and Osage streets, pursuant to a call by A. C. Stewart, thirty-third degree honorable deputy of the supreme council. Tonight the local members will give a banquet in honor of the visitors, the ladies of the Eastern Star serving the viands.

Masons Installed Officers.

C. H.—E. A. Sisson.

M. of first V.—S. Dameron.
M. of second V.—J. West Goodwin.

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds him- self regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak" the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired, and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness.

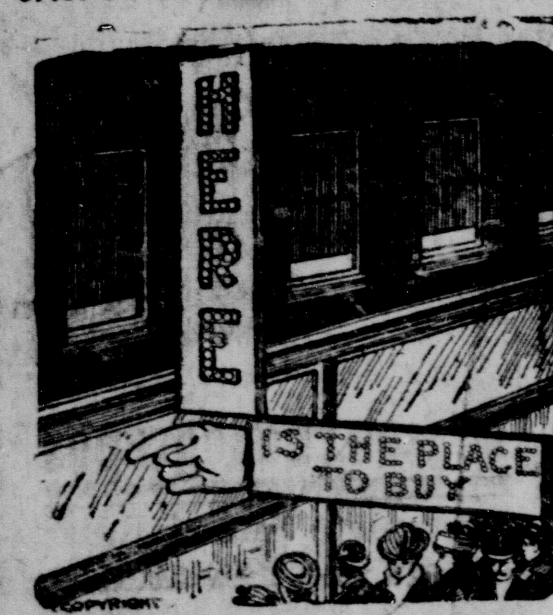

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

WILL GOLFERS SECEDE?

WESTERN ASSOCIATION MAY QUIT THE NATIONAL TOMORROW.

TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING IN CHICAGO

May Organize the Golf Association of America, in Which Event Canada and Mexico Will Become Members.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—It is possible that the Western Golf association may secede from the National Golf association at the annual meeting tomorrow, Charles F. Thompson, who will almost certainly be elected president at tomorrow's session, favors such action.

Interviews with Mr. Thompson and Albert R. Gates, present president of the organization left no doubt that the meeting would develop a movement to secede from the National Golf association and form a new organization to be called the Golf Association of America. Mr. Thompson admitted that he favored this plan and expressed a belief that a majority of the delegates to the annual meeting were of the same mind.

The new association, if launched, will probably take in Canada and Mexico. The nominating committee, composed of Wendell Fertig, chairman; John M. Witherspoon and Fred S. Barton, has selected the following ticket to be voted on at the meeting: President, F. C. Thompson, Chicago; vice president, Horace F. Smith, Nashville; secretary, Trigg Walton, Chicago; treasurer, Edward A. Engler, Chicago; directors, John D. Cady, Rock Island; Albert B. Lambert, St. Louis; Judge W. Henderson, Arlington, Ohio; W. L. Yule, Kenosha, Wis., and William Donaldson, Indianapolis.

The amendments to the constitution provide, among other things, that each club, a member of the association, shall have a right to be represented at any of the meetings by two delegates, each of whom shall be entitled to cast one vote, or otherwise that said club may be represented by one delegate, who shall be entitled to cast two votes for the club.

In section 5, the proposed amendment is that the secretary of the association shall mail to the secretary of each club in the association a complete report of the business to come before the delegates at least thirty days previous to the annual meeting, so far as such business shall relate to any amendment of the constitution or election of office-bearers or directors of the association.

POISONED FLIES USED

By a Girl in Attempt to Kill Father, Declares Her Sister.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 15.—Poisoned flies, as a means of committing murder, was described in detail yesterday in the trial of the divorce suit by a daughter who was arrayed against a sister in a fight between husband and wife.

Mrs. Elizabeth Slocum testified in Judge Monroe's court that her sister, Bertha Wiebking, had confessed to her that she put poisoned flies in her father's food, but the dose had no ill effect on her father, William Wiebking.

Wiebking is suing Mrs. Dora Wiebking for divorce on the ground of cruelty. The daughter, Bertha, is aiding the mother in the defense, while Mrs. Slocum, another daughter, is arrayed on the side of her father.

"She had been told that flies poisoned with strychnine ground fine would poison a man if placed in food," said Mrs. Slocum. "Several weeks later sister Bertha confessed that she had given father enough of the stuff to poison a dozen people, but that he was not injured." The case is still on trial.

FEEBLE OLD LADY

Has Strength Restored By Vinol

Mrs. Michael Bloom of Lewistown, Pa., who is 80 years of age, says: "For a long time I have been so feeble that I have had to be wheeled around in an invalid's chair. I had no strength and took cold at the slightest provocation, which invariably settled on my lungs, and a cough would result. My son learned of the cod liver preparation called Vinol, and procured a bottle for me. It built up my strength rapidly, and after taking three bottles I am able to do most of my work, and I can walk a quarter of a mile easily. Every aged or weak person who requires strength should try Vinol. I am delighted with what it has done for me."

As a body builder and strength creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, and after sickness, Vinol is unexcelled. If it fails to give satisfaction we will return your money.

CATARRH CURED

No Cure, No Pay, is a Most Generous Offer.

To get an antiseptic strong enough to kill catarrh germs and not destroy the tissues of the membrane at the same time, has been a problem which was never solved until the discovery of Hyomei (pronounced High-o-mei).

Hyomei is prepared from eucalyptus, the most powerful yet healing antiseptic known. Breathe it through the inhaler over the inflamed and germ-ridden membrane four or five times a day, and in a few days the germs will disappear.

The inflamed condition will go, too, and the snuffling, hawking and offensive breath, and the discharge of mucus and crusts in the nose will cease.

Then why should any catarrh sufferer hesitate, when the W. E. Bard Drug Co. has such faith in Hyomei that they offer to return your money if after a trial Hyomei does not cure catarrh.

A complete Hyomei outfit, including the inhaler, costs $1.00, and extra bottles, if afterwards needed, cost but 50 cents. Hyomei also cures asthma, croup, sore throat, coughs, colds or grip.

Illinois Man Gulps Down Last Pint in One Drink.

Carlinville, Ill., Jan. 15.—Nicholas Pusik, of Mount Olive, 27 years old, died after drinking a quart of whisky at his boarding house here.

Pusik produced a quart bottle of whisky and bet a company of friends that he could drink the same in less than two hours. The money for the wager was made up and the bet taken.

He drank about half the liquor slowly and finished the other at one drink. He received the money, fell groaning to the floor and died.

GOSSIP OF THE SPORTSALL ROT, THIS TALK ABOUT COR-BETT MEETING "JACK"
JOHNSON.WANTS TO TAKE UP WHITE MAN'S BURDEN"Gentleman Jim" Is Now 43 Years of Age, Is Also on the Stage, and His Press Agent Knows
How to Make Good.

(By Knox Blockoff.)

New York, Jan. 15.—If this be poetry, gents, make the most of it:
Now "Gentleman Jim" Corbett, he is just as cheery as he can be—Thinks he's able to come back Strong enough to whip "Big Jack."
He is hoping that he can Prove he's not an "also ran"— But "Gentleman Jim" Corbett, he will, by hemlock, have to show me.
Them, poetically expressed, be the sentiments of many disciples of the manly art in this here metropolis.All this guff about the old, shelf-worn champions "coming back" to take up the white man's burden gives me a pain in the diagram.A list of the ex-champs and near-champs and would-be-champs and has-beens and never-wases who have shied their castor into Jack Johnson's ring and dared the big black to deadly battle would read like a copy of Who's Who in Pugdom, edition of 71144 B. F.
(before the flood).And the funniest thing about these hot-air champions and conversational belt-holders is that they don't cosider it at all necessary to consult Jack Johnson. The big dinge doesn't figure in their calculations at all.
And yet the stubborn fact remains that Jack is the champion, and that he may have something to say about whom and when and where and for how much he will fight.So far as Corbett is concerned—well, "Gentleman Jim" is now an actor, and his press agent is apparently on the job. The Corbett of today, 43 years old and many years out of the ring, would have about as good a chance to lick Johnson as the proverbial snowball has in Hades. At that, Corbett could probably come nearer to holding his own with the moke than could Fitzsimmons, Ruhlir, Marvin Hart or any of the other walking delegates from the pugilistic cemetery who have challenged Johnson.
One thing—and about the only thing —that is in Corbett's favor is that he has kept his shape and hasn't acquired a case of embonpoint.Corbett never had much of a punch.
Cleverness was his long suit, and five years' absence from the ring has probably lost him that. Johnson has the cleverness and he also has a punch that is better than any Corbett ever possessed. On the basis of this dope, it is easy to figure out what would happen to the pompous one if he ever crawls into a ring with Johnson. But he won't. Corbett is foolish —foolish like a fox—but not to an extent that will cause him to risk his good looks and "stage presence" in an encounter with the negro.A pug with the honorable title of "Doctor" tucked away at the front of his cognomen has been discovered in Seattle. He is Dr. B. F. Roller, who attained some fame on the coast as a wrestler and is now afflicted with the pugilistic itch. According to the enthusiastic sport writers of Seattle, Roller is to be the coming heavyweight champion who will demonstrate the superiority of the white race over the black and snatch the title away from Jack Johnson. His first important fight will probably be with Al Kauffmann and will take place in the near future. If he can defeat Kauffmann it will be sufficient proof that he is the goods.This is what a Seattle dispatch has to say of Roller:Dr. Roller, always a physical marvel, sprang into fame overnight by his prowess on the mat. His weight and speed made him look like a formidable opponent for Frank Gotch, and when the two met the SeattleCOKE

HE WAS HOBO AND TRAMP

JONATHAN CHAPMAN, WHO WAS BETTER KNOWN AS JONATHAN APPLESEED.

WAS BORN IN BOSTON JANUARY 15, 1775

History Names Him as Being in Ohio in 1801 With a Broken Down Horse Loaded With Bags of Apple Seeds.

New York, Jan. 15.—One hundred and thirty-four years ago today there was born in Boston one of the most novel figures in American history—Jonathan Chapman, best known as Johnny Appleseed, perhaps the most benevolent hobo and tramp the world has ever known.

The anniversary of his birth is lovingly remembered by fruit growers, nurserymen and pomologists throughout the country, and especially in the central west, where, during his lifetime Johnny Appleseed planted over 100,000 acres of orchards.

About a decade ago a monument to his memory was erected in Mansfield, O., and a prominent New York clergyman has written a novel of which Johnny is the hero. He died in 1847, but the location of his grave is unknown, except that it is somewhere in the woods he loved so well.

In Ohio and Indiana they have many a tradition of the barefoot man who for thirty years moved among them with a tin dipper for a hat and a coffee sack for coat and trousers, a leather bag over his shoulder brimming with apple seeds.

They tell how he planted nurseries here and there along the river banks, came back when the trees were grown and either gave them away or sold them for a "flip-penny-bit" apiece, and how he died a martyr to his strange business, after seeing 100,000 acres bearing fruit.

They tell how, with the Massachusetts spirit, he placed Paul Revere for the frontiersmen in the war of 1812 and saved them from Indian massacre, walking through the woods from shanty to shanty night and day without food or rest, giving his warning.

There are stories of how he scattered the seeds of medicinal plants as he passed through the forests, how he preached his Swedenborgian doctrines to the settlers who put up for the night, and of how he loved all creatures.

Johnny Appleseed was born in Boston in 1775, and although there is considerable uncertainty in the records, it has been agreed that January 15 is to be observed as the exact day of his birth. As a boy he was a lover of nature, a wanderer in the fields and a sentimental observer of the stars. Among the many romances which cluster about his life is one of an early love in Boston, with a sad ending that made him a bachelor and a wanderer.

The first trace found of him in history records him as being in the territory of Ohio in 1801 with a broken down old horse on whose back were

Thousands Have Kidney

Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scaling pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go many times during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Served Roast Pig and Other "Delicacies" Last Night.

Roast pig, with other delicious viands and condiments, was served last evening to the members of Sedalia aerie No. 601, Fraternal Order of Eagles, at a banquet given by the newly elected officers of that organization.

Walter Morey, past worthy president, donated the porkers, and the repast, which was enjoyed by numerous banqueters, was prepared by Blatterman & Rowe.

Lon V. Ware delivered the address of welcome, while J. M. Brown presided as master of ceremonies. Toasts were responded to by Senator Holmes Hall, "Pete" Hays and others.

Several musical numbers were given by Roy Barker, Charles Menefee and others, and the event proved one of the most elaborate of any of its kind ever given by that organization.
